

Competency Based Courses for Internationally Educated Nurses: Application Form

To apply for the Competency Based Courses for Internationally Educated Nurses, follow these steps:

1. Review the Eligibility Criteria and How to Apply pages on the rncompetencies.ca website to see if you are eligible to apply for the courses and have all of the required documentation.
2. Complete the fields below and save the file on your computer. The rows are electronically fillable and should be typed out on a computer. Do not print the form to complete it.
3. Review the documentation checklist on this form. You must submit all required documents along with your application form. If your application package is incomplete, your application will not be processed.

PERSONAL AND CONTACT INFORMATION

Last Name

First Name

Street Number/Name Apartment

City Postal Code

Province or Country

Phone Number (include area code)

Provide an Email Address that you check frequently

Date of Birth (yy/mm/dd)

Country of Origin

NURSING EDUCATION

Country of Study

Name of Nursing School

Graduation Date from Nursing School (yyyy)

Highest Level of Nursing Education

Years of Experience as a Registered Nurse

Briefly describe your most recent nursing experience:

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

Is English your first language? Yes No

If English is not the first language, was a language proficiency test completed? Yes No

If yes, name of language proficiency test

Date of language proficiency test

If English is not your first language, list the languages you are proficient in

ACADEMIC AND STUDY STATUS INFORMATION

Are you an internationally educated nurse (IEN)? Yes No

Indicate your status for study in Canada:

Canadian Citizen Permanent Resident Refugee Status Valid Canadian Work Permit
Valid Canadian Study Permit

CNO REQUIREMENTS

Please note that acceptance into these courses does not guarantee registration with CNO. All seven requirements listed on the CNO website must be met to achieve registration.

<http://www.cno.org/en/become-a-nurse/registration-requirements/>

I have read and understood the registration requirements of CNO:

Yes

REQUISITE SKILLS AND ABILITIES

You must be able to acquire the requisite skills and abilities to practise nursing in Ontario.

<http://www.cno.org/globalassets/docs/reg/41078-skillabilities-4pager-final.pdf>

I have read and understood the requisite skills and abilities needed to practise nursing:

Yes

APPLICATION PACKAGE DOCUMENTATION CHECKLIST

- Completed Application Form
- Copy of your College of Nurses of Ontario competency assessment form (IENCAF) that shows your competency gaps.
- Proof of Canadian Citizenship, or Permanent Residence Status, or Refugee Status, or Work Permit, or Study Permit. Accepted documents for proof of status include Canadian birth certificate, Canadian passport, Certificate of citizenship, Certificate of Indian Status, Landed immigrant papers, Permanent resident card, Confirmation of permanent residence status document, Verification of status document, Work permit, and Study permit.
- Proof of English language proficiency if English is not your first language. Accepted documents for proof of English language proficiency include Canadian English Language Benchmark Assessment for Nurses (CELBAN) test scores and International English Language Testing System (IELTS) test scores.

Email your complete application package to Ayesha Bhatti at abhatti@cou.on.ca.

NEXT STEPS

If you meet the above eligibility criteria, your application will be recommended for admission to one of the four universities in the consortium. The university will make the final decision about accepting candidates for admission. Acceptance in initial screening does not guarantee acceptance by the university. The university will be in touch with you about whether you are accepted and next steps.

SOURCE TRACKING

How did you hear about these courses?

HealthForceOntario Marketing and Recruitment Agency (HFO MRA), a government agency that assists with the planning, recruitment, retention, transition and distribution of health professionals in Ontario, seeks to better understand how their clients are progressing on their path towards professional registration and employment. If you are an existing client of HFO MRA and would like to share your name to show that you are registered in these university IEN courses for the purpose outlined above, please click here